(CT:CH-11; 05-18-2005)

- a. Memorandums are used for routine communications within and between offices in the Department, posts and other Federal agencies.
- b. This chapter contains procedures and format guidelines for drafting and preparing memorandums. See the Executive Secretariat InfoLink Web site for guidelines for preparing memorandums to be signed by the Secretary and other seventh-floor principals.

5 FAH-1 H-312 TYPES OF MEMORANDUMS

5 FAH-1 H-312.1 Internal Memorandum

(TL:CH-4; 07-31-2002)

The internal memorandum is used for administrative or routine operational matters, or for background or other substantive information pertaining to program and policy matters within and between offices in the Department or at post (see 5 FAH-1 Exhibit H-312.1).

5 FAH-1 H-312.2 Interagency Memorandum

(TL:CH-4; 07-31-2002)

The interagency memorandum is used for informal correspondence with other Federal agencies on administrative or routine operational matters. The format varies according to the level of offices involved (see 5 FAH-1 H-312 Exhibit H-312.2).

5 FAH-1 H-312.3 Memorandum to File

(TL:CH-4; 07-31-2002)

A memorandum addressed to the "File", documents significant information that is otherwise not documented. Follow the format of an internal memorandum. Place the word "File" opposite the "TO" line.

5 FAH-1 H-312.4 Memorandum of Conversation

(TL:CH-4; 07-31-2002)

A memorandum of conversation is used for substantive conversations between officers and foreign diplomatic officials, representatives of public and private organizations, Federal officials, or private individuals either in the Department or at post. Preparers should complete the Memorandum of Conversation on letterhead stationery as follows:

- (1) If classified, show classification level at the top of the first page, flush with the left margin two lines below the seal. If unclassified or administratively controlled, show "UNCLASSIFIED" or "SENSITIVE BUT UNCLASSIFIED" at the top, flush with the left margin, two lines below the seal.
- (2) Center and underline "MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION" two lines below the classification.
- (3) Double-space (one blank line) and enter the date. Line the date up with Washington, DC. Double-space before beginning the heading "SUBJECT:" Double-space after the subject before entering the headings "TAGS:", "PARTICIPANTS:", and "COPIES TO:".
- (4) Enter the text two spaces (one blank line) below the last line of "COPIES TO:". Each paragraph should be numbered.
- (5) Center the classification at the bottom of the page, and add the declassification instructions directly below it on the first page only. Center the classification at the top and bottom of each additional page (see 5 FAH-1 H-313). In the lower left corner of the first page only, enter the name and position of the original classification authority on the "Classified By" line, with the agency and office of origin unless it is otherwise indicated. Directly below this line, enter the reason(s) for classification, citing the appropriate category(ies) from Section 1.5, E.O. 12958 (See <http://www.foia.state.gov> and select "Reference, E.O. 12958"). Show drafting and clearing information on all copies. Refer to 5 FAH-1 H-313 for further guidance. See 5 FAH-1 H-325.9 for declassification and downgrading instructions for memorandums with attachments.

5 FAH-1 H-312.5 Briefing Memorandum

(CT:CH-11; 05-18-2005)

- (1) Office appointments or meetings;
- (2) Checklists for office appointments or meetings;
- (3) Participation in White House meetings; and
- (4) Protocol scenarios (prepared by S/CPR).

See the Executive Secretariat InfoLink Web site for additional drafting and formatting guidelines.

5 FAH-1 H-312.6 Information Memorandum

(CT:CH-11; 05-18-2005)

Information memorandums are prepared to inform the Secretary or other seventh-floor principals about events, projects or policy matters. An information memorandum may be generated as a result of matters of interest or in response to a specific request. Consult the Executive Secretariat InfoLink Web site for drafting and formatting guidelines.

5 FAH-1 H-312.7 Action Memorandum

(CT:CH-11; 05-18-2005)

Action memorandums are prepared for the Secretary and other seventh-floor principals. These memorandums require decisions from or action by the recipients. See the Executive Secretariat InfoLink Web site for drafting and formatting guidelines.

5 FAH-1 H-312.8 Form OF-41, Routing and Transmittal Slip

(TL:CH-4; 07-31-2002)

- a. Form OF-41, Routing and Transmittal Slip, is used to forward routine correspondence, documents, and other material for action or information when detailed instructions, explanations, or comments are unnecessary and no record of the transmittal is needed. Information on the form may be handwritten or typed (be sure to initial by printed name if form is typed). Users should check one of the appropriate boxes listed or add remarks to indicate the reason for the transmittal (see 5 FAH-1 Exhibit H-312.8).
- b. Transmittal slips should not be used to record approvals or other important action or information.
- c. Transmittal slips should be copied only when the transmittal office retains a copy for a limited time in case the material is not received.
- d. When using Form OF-41 for classified or administratively controlled material (SBU), it must bear the same classification or control designation it covers (see 12 FAM 600).

5 FAH-1 H-313 SECURITY CLASSIFICATION/DECLASSIFICATION

(TL:CH-4; 07-31-2002)

- a. Classified memorandums must be classified by an original or derivative classification authority and marked according to section 1.5, E.O. 12958, (see Reference E.O. 12958). Each element (title, paragraph, section, table or chart) must be appropriately marked (C), (S), (TS), (U), or (SBU). The overall classification is the highest classification level of any part of the memorandum. (See 5 FAH-1 H-100, 5 FAH-1 H-132 and 12 FAM 520 for more information on marking classified information.) Subject lines of classified documents should be kept unclassified whenever possible.
- b. On the first page, place the classification at the left margin two lines below the seal, underlined in capital letters, directly above the word "MEMORANDUM". Center the classification at the bottom, and place the classification at the top and bottom of succeeding pages.
- c. At the bottom of the first page only, directly below the classification, enter one of the following (original or derivative classification):

- (1) Classified By: followed by the name and title of the original classification authority, and the agency of origin (unless otherwise indicated):
 - (a) Reason: followed by the reason(s) for classification with the appropriate classification category(ies) from Section 1.5, E.O. 12958, (see Reference E.O. 12958); and
 - (b) Declassify on: followed by the date of automatic declassification.
- (2) Derived from: followed by the title and date of the derivative classification source document only if applicable:
 - (a) Declassify on: followed by the declassification instructions on the source document; or
 - (b) Source Marked: followed an exemption category as defined in paragraph 1.6, E.O. 12598 (see Reference E.O. 12958).

See 5 FAH-1 H-325.9 for declassification and downgrading instructions for memorandums with classified attachments. (See 5 FAH-1 Exhibit H-313 and 12 FAM 500 for additional information on marking classified information.)

MEMORANDUM

October 1, 2002

TO: IRM/APR - Mr. Jonathan Doe

FROM: IRM/APR/IAP - John Dobson

SUBJECT: Sample Internal Memorandum

TAGS: AINF

This exhibit shows how to prepare a basic one-page internal memorandum on Department or Post letterhead stationery.

Allow at least one-inch margins on all sides. Include the date only if the memorandum will be signed the same day. Place the date on the line opposite "MEMORANDUM" and align with the "W" in Washington, D.C. Each memorandum must contain "TO," "FROM," "SUBJECT," and "TAGS" lines.

Enter text in block style, single-spaced with double spaces between paragraphs. One-paragraph memorandums may be double-spaced. List and describe attachments directly under the heading "Attachment(s):". Number more than one attachment consecutively. Show distribution (office symbol followed by a colon, initial(s) and last name) for information copies under the heading "cc:" flush with the left margin, two lines below the last line of text or "Attachment(s)".

The signing officer places initials on the "FROM" line immediately after the printed name. At the drafter's discretion, show drafting information on the original, at least two lines below "Attachment(s):" or "cc:". Include in the drafting information the drafter's office symbol followed by a colon, initials and last name, preparer's initials (if other than drafting officer), and the date prepared. A separate drafting page may also be used (see example in 5 FAH-1 Exhibit H-325.10).

REF: Your Memorandum, July 2, 2002

This exhibit shows the format for an internal memorandum prepared on either regular or special letterhead stationery.

MEMORANDUM

June 15, 2002

TO: DOD - Mr. Frank M. Black
FROM: ADMIN - Robert A. Brown
SUBJECT: Interagency Memorandums

Memorandums may be used for informal correspondence with other Federal agencies, usually on administrative or routine matters. Such memorandums are prepared on Department or Post letterhead stationery. This exhibit shows the format for an interagency memorandum on post letterhead stationery when it is not necessary to include the titles of the addressee or signing officer. Align the date with the first letter in the printed letterhead. Do not put a "TAGS" line on memorandums going outside of the Department or Post. An example of the format for the "TO" and "FROM" lines for a similar type memorandum prepared on Department letterhead stationery follows:

TO: DOD/AS/CR - Mr. Richard M. Roe
FROM: STATE/M/P - John A. Doe

Enter the text in the same format shown in Exhibit H-312.1. Include the attachment(s), if any, on the original and all copies. Do not show drafting and clearance information on the original or courtesy copies. Show this information only on the copies to be retained in the Department or Post. Always make an official record copy, and restrict the number of information copies to those required on a strict need-to-know basis. Clear memorandum as appropriate.

1. (S) This exhibit of a classified memorandum shows the proper format for marking classified documents in accordance with E.O. 12958, (see <http://www.foia.state.gov> and select "Reference, E.O. 12958") guidelines. The policy is to mark each and every paragraph, subparagraph, section, etc. to eliminate doubt as to which portions contain or reveal classified information. Subject lines of classified documents should be kept unclassified whenever possible.

a. (C) It is important to understand portion-marking requirements, i.e., which the recipient of a classified document is entitled to know what the classification of each portion is or that some portions are not classified.

b. (S) If this portion of paragraph one contained SECRET information, it would be so marked. Charts and illustrations also require proper markings in a classified document.

2. (U) This paragraph is UNCLASSIFIED, as indicated, and has been developed to emphasize that each and every paragraph or part thereof should be marked.

3. (C) Enter a "Classified by" line, reason for classification, or the "derived from" line. Enter the declassification instructions. Specify a date, event, or exemption category. Enter this information at the bottom of the first page only.

SUBJECT: Marking Transmittal Documents (U)

TAGS: AINF

1. (C) This exhibit shows how to mark a CONFIDENTIAL transmittal document with a SECRET attachment. It also describes how to mark an UNCLASSIFIED transmittal document that has a classified attachment. Subject lines of classified documents should be kept unclassified whenever possible.

2. (U) If an attachment to a transmittal is classified higher than the transmittal itself, the highest classification is entered at the top and bottom of the first page and a notation, such as "DOWNGRADE TO CONFIDENTIAL WHEN SEPARATED FROM ATTACHMENT", is added to show the classification of the transmittal itself. A classified transmittal must also be marked to show the classification of its portions, its SUBJECT line, its appropriate declassification markings, and any other additional security markings that are appropriate for any of the information it contains. When a classified transmittal consists of two or more pages, the second and following pages are marked with the classification of the information appearing therein.

3. (S) An UNCLASSIFIED transmittal carrying a classified attachment is marked with the highest classification of the attachment with a notation such as "UNCLASSIFIED WHEN SEPARATED FROM ATTACHMENTS" on the first page only. Also include on the first page any additional markings appropriate for the attachment(s), since the transmittal itself contains no classified information.

4. (U) Transmittals are always marked with the highest classification of information being transmitted. Notations, as appropriate, are added to show the classification of the transmittal when the attachments are removed or that it is unclassified upon removal of attachments.
